

Rising Stars Conference Conduct and Safety Statement:

IEEE believes that science, technology, and engineering are fundamental human activities for which openness, international collaboration, and the free flow of talent and ideas are essential. Its meetings, conferences, and other events seek to enable engaging, thought-provoking conversations that support IEEE's core mission of advancing technology for the benefit of humanity. Accordingly, IEEE is committed to providing a safe, productive, and welcoming environment to all participants, including staff and vendors, at IEEE-related events.

IEEE has no tolerance for discrimination, harassment, or bullying in any form at IEEE-related events. All participants have the right to pursue shared interests without harassment or discrimination in an environment that supports diversity and inclusion. Participants are expected to adhere to these principles and respect the rights of others.

IEEE events, including the IEEE Rising Stars Conference, places a priority on each of our participant's health and safety. The IEEE Rising Stars Conference will abide by all governmental and venue related health and safety guidelines. We strongly suggest that attendees are vaccinated against COVID 19, be prepared to wear appropriate face coverings, and maintain required social distance policies.

IEEE seeks to provide a secure environment at its events. Participants should report any behavior inconsistent with the principles outlined here to on-site staff, security or venue personnel, or to eventconduct@ieee.org.
